

DEADLINE: March 26, 2008

2008 Bath of the Year Contest

For new and remodeled baths.

2008 ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS: Any completed, occupied, residential bath, located in the greater Atlanta area. The project may not have been published in Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles or any other publication prior to the contest. Each project may be entered only once.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

- Complete anonymity is required on all presentation materials. Please omit names of entrants, clients or participating parties on all materials other than the entry form.

- Each submission must include a separate, completed entry form, and the following listed items. Please make copies of all materials; entries become the property of Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles, a publication of Network

Communications, Inc.

- Submit a half-page summary of your bath entry (include its distinctive features and why you think it should be published.)
- Send up to 10 digital images; you may include "before" images for renovations, but these are not necessary.
- "Before" floor plans are required for renovation baths. Add dimensions for finished wall surfaces. Fixtures and adjoining rooms must be identified on the floor plan. Size category is based on the "after" floor plan.
- One award is presented per winning entry. If project is submitted by more than one person, designate which is to receive the award.

SELECTION CRITERIA: General excellence winners will be selected for each of these categories: (A) Less than 100 square feet, (B) More than 100 square feet. Winners will be selected on the basis of aesthetic and functional excellence, originality, appropriateness and quality. One will be chosen as "Bath of the Year."

PUBLICATION OF WINNING ENTRIES: Award-winning projects must be available to photograph in April 2008 for publication in the July 2008 issue of Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles and may not be published in another publication for six (6) months after that. Homeowner may request anonymity but must agree to make residence available during reasonable hours for additional photography.
